ABOUT MYSELF

I'm a curious and passionate aspiring full stack developer, currently diving deep into front-end development. Although I studied microelectronics back in 1999, it wasn't until 2024 that I realized software development is truly my calling. I'm all in now — and loving the journey.

PROJECTS

Quiz App React JS Built a fun and interactive quiz app with React! Users can answer multiple-choice questions, and track their score — all in a smooth, responsive UI. Great way to practice React state and component logic! As part of my TeachBit.ro learning journey, I created a dynamic quiz app with React — fast, fun, and fully functional!
